

PCCi Honored as Finalist for Business of the Year Leading IT Firm Is Chosen for Third Year in a Row

MECHANICSBURG (October 1, 2009) – For the third consecutive year, Pierson Computing Connection Inc. (PCCi) has been named a finalist in Central Penn Business Journal's Business of the Year contest. PCCi's 40-member strong team will be honored for differentiating themselves as an industry leader; meeting the challenge of diversifying their client base in response to evolving capabilities; continually growing revenues; developing employees personally and professionally; and engaging in community service and outreach. In 2007 the company was honored under its former name of Pierson Consulting Company Inc. "PCCi is delighted to be a finalist for Central Penn Business Journal's Business of the Year Award for the third year in a row," said Debra A. Pierson, company founder, president, and CEO. "The PCCi team's consistent focus on the execution of our strategic plan has spurred significant growth in new geographies despite the tough economic climate. Our continued emphasis on excellent customer service, the flexibility of our installation teams and our cost-competitive services offerings continue to exceed the expectations of our customers."

-MORE-

PCCi is Business of the Year Finalist Page 2 of 3

PCCi has earned its certified Women's Business Enterprise (WBE) in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia and North Carolina and is actively pursuing contracts throughout the Northeast. The winners, chosen by an independent panel of judges, will be announced at a gala, black tie-event recognizing the elite group of companies and business leaders for their accomplishments and contributions to the business community in central Pennsylvania on Monday, November 9, 5:45 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at the Hilton Harrisburg.

"Our best hope for our future is continued investments in developing our team, taking care of our employees, providing them with family sustaining wages, and focusing on innovative, efficient, and leading-edge IT installation practices," said Pierson. Pierson Computing Connection Inc. (PCCi) is located at 6 North Frederick Street, in downtown Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania. Their spacious 2,000-square foot corporate headquarters is positioned in the Harrisburg Regional Technology Corridor Enterprise Zone.