Pierson Computing Connection, Inc. is honored by the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame as “Champion of Older Workers” with an Outstanding Services Award.

Mechanicsburg, PA (May 11, 2009) – PCCi was honored on May 7, 2009 by the Pennsylvania Department of Aging as the Small Business Hall of Fame inductee for 2009 as a “Champion for Older Workers” at a luncheon held at the Hershey Lodge. The Hall of Fame of Champions of Older Workers was created to identify and recognize Pennsylvania employers who have made noteworthy efforts to hire older workers and to increase employment opportunities for those aged 55 and older. More than 57% of PCCi’s workforce is over 55 years of age, the average age of its technology installation staff is 59 years.

Pennsylvania Department of Aging Secretary, John Michael Hall noted “Pierson Computing Connection is a superb example of a business that appreciates the contributions and value of older workers. This company has recognized that building their workforce around the maturity, wisdom, skill and work ethic of seniors makes good business sense. The Pennsylvania Department of Aging salutes Pierson Computing Connection and its management for its forward-thinking approach to hiring older Pennsylvanians and congratulates them on being named the 2009 Hall of Fame Champion for Older Workers.”

A Mechanicsburg-based company celebrating 15 years in business, PCCi offers innovative, cutting-edge hardware, software, data cabling, project management, consulting and IT Installation services to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and businesses throughout the mid-state. In December, PCCi was named the 2008 Small Business of the Year by the Harrisburg Regional Chamber of Commerce & CREDC.

Pierson Computing Connection, Inc. (PCCi) is located at 6 North Frederick Street, in downtown Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania. Their spacious 2,000 square-foot corporate headquarters is positioned in the Harrisburg Regional Technology Corridor Enterprise Zone.
